Sacred Heart Church.

The mission in progress at this church has so far been one of the most successful ever held in this city. At the evening services the church has been thronged, and the attendance at both morning ser vices has been very large. The sermons have been of a very high order, and the universal opinion seems to be that the Fathers giving the mission are among the most eloquent, while at the same time being thoroughly logical and practical, who have ever come to Richmond. On Tuesday night Father De Cantil-lon preached on "Mortel Sin," and on yesterday morning his subject was "The Duties of Parents to Children." Last night Father Kernan's sermon was on "Blasphemy." Confessions are now being heard during each day and at the con-clusion of the evening exercises. The mission will close on Sunday night at

Come Get Your Books.

Some little delay has been caused in the delivery of the books offered by The Times for coupons clipped from the paper by reason of the demand, which was much greater than was anticipated. A large supply of the books has arrived, and those who have been waiting so patiently will now be supplied at once. Those in the city will be delivered, but the orders have piled up so that it will necessarily take several days to get around. Those who want to be served first should call in person or send to The Times office and the books will be delivered to them promptly. The out of town orders are being delivered just as applify as they can be wranted and severally as they can be wranted as the severally as they can be wranted as the several severally as they can be wranted as the several severally as they can be severally as they can rapidly as they can be wrapped, and several clerks are kept constantly at the work.
